

Liz Collini
www.lizcollini.com

Nationality: British
Lives and works: London

Recent Education

2007 MA Fine Art Printmaking – Royal College of Art
2005 BA (Fine Art) - Middlesex University (First Class Honours)
2001 Access Certificate in Art and Design - Barnet College

Commissions and Collections

- V&A Museum; Large printed text on board commissioned in 2011 as permanent installation in the Prints and Drawings Study Room ; other pieces also held in the collection
- Bury Museum and Art Gallery (print selection)
- Penguin Books (purchase of prints)

Selected Exhibitions

2011

- Pushing Print – Pie Factory, Margate
- Bite – Artists Making Prints – Mall Galleries (Featured Artist)
- Bury International Text Festival: Sentences (Bury Museum and Art Gallery)
- A Map of You (Bury Transport Museum)
- LizCollini@the Met – Met Arts Centre, Bury (solo show of prints)

2010

- ...and then again... - City Museum, Lisbon (joint curator of show of extended printmaking with 31 British and Portuguese artists)
- Royal Academy Summer Exhibition
- Line Journeys – Collyer Bristow Gallery, London

2009

- Symmetry, Black Church Print Studio, Dublin
- Royal Academy Summer Exhibition
- Bury International Text Festival (The Agency of Words)
- Everything Must Belong – Lauderdale House, Highgate, London
- Northern Print Biennale – Hatton Gallery, Newcastle
- Working Towards – Solo Show, Original Gallery, Hornsey, London

2008

- ArtFutures – Bloomberg Space, London
- Heart of Glass – Concrete and Glass Festival, Shoreditch, London
- Overlappings – Solo Show, Tricycle Gallery, Kilburn, London
- Hot off the Press – Curwen Gallery, London
- A Word in Your Eye – Hackney Empire, London

Awards

- Daler-Rowney Prize for Drawing (joint winner) – 2007
- Worshipful Company of Architects Drawing Prize (joint winner) – 2009
- Juliet Gomperts Trust Award – 2011

I live and work in London, with a studio at the Chocolate Factory in Wood Green. I am a keyholder with East London Printmakers and show regularly in their group shows.