

Lot #8

Live Auction

JENNIFER STEINKAMP

Ronnie Reagan 3

2009

Site-specific commission

Edition 2/6 + IAP

£20,000

Estimate

The artist and greengrassi will generously donate 50% of the proceeds of this major new commission by Steinkamp to the Contemporary Art Society. Additional cost for computer and projector at the expense of the purchaser.

Internationally acclaimed American installation artist Jennifer Steinkamp works with video and new media to explore ideas about architectural space, motion and perception. Using digital projection to transform architectural space, in the past decade she has increasingly incorporated nature-based imagery into her work – gnarled trees that twist, turn and change seasons, rooms filled with undulating strands of flowers – creating mesmerizing environments that reference the sublime, evoking the magnitude and power of nature and bringing digital art into the mainstream of contemporary art.

JENNIFER STEINKAMP

Selected Biography

- 1958 Born in Denver, USA
Lives and works Los Angeles, USA
- 2013 Jennifer Steinkamp: Madame Curie, Joslyn Art Museum, Omaha, Nebraska, USA (solo)
— greengrassi, London (solo) — Moth, ACME, Los Angeles, USA (solo) — Soledad Lorenzo, Madrid (solo)
- 2012 Jennifer Steinkamp, Mike Kelley, USC Brain & Creativity Institute, Los Angeles, USA (solo)
— Jennifer Steinkamp, The Museum of Fine Arts, Houston, USA (solo) — The Death of the Moth, The Fabric Workshop, Philadelphia, USA (solo)
- 2011 Museum of Contemporary Art, San Diego, USA (solo)
— Works of Paper, ACME, Los Angeles, USA — Videosphere: A New Generation, Albright-Knox Art Gallery, Buffalo, USA — Blink! Light, Sound and the Moving Image, Denver Art Museum, Denver, USA
- 2010 Lehmann Maupin, New York (solo) — Jennifer Steinkamp, Leeahn Gallery, Seoul (solo) — The Artist's Museum, MoCA, Los Angeles, USA — Arte Portugal, Lisbon — Making Nature, Rubicon Gallery, Dublin

Her work is featured in public and private collections internationally, including The Chrysler Museum of Art, Virginia; Centro de Arte Contemporaneo de Malaga, Spain; Corcoran Gallery of Art, Washington D.C.; Istanbul Museum, Turkey; Minneapolis Institute of Arts, Minnesota; Museum of Contemporary Art, Los Angeles; Museum of Contemporary Art, North Miami and the Museum of Fine Arts, Houston